Il Custode

Lucca

Services: Bathroom with shower and WC: 1, Bathroom with tub, shower and WC: 1, Double bedroom: 1, Kitchen: 1, Living-cum-dining: 1, Terrace: 1, Twin bedroom: 2

Lucca is a little town rich of art and culture and well known as one of the “jewels” of Tuscany. The town has a splendid and unique town wall, perfectly preserved, where you may take peasants walks or rides. From the walls you may also enjoy wonderful views onto the “Apuan” mountains, onto the churches, towers and narrow lanes of the city.

“Il Custode” is a large apartment is located right into the historic centre, inside a prestigious palazzo and within walking distance from “Via Fillungo”, the commercial street, where you will find nice shops and cafés.

Lucca is also a good base for touring the other famous Tuscan towns such as Florence, Pisa, Siena.

Access through a “loggia” and stairs to the 3rd floor:

1 double bedroom, 1 bathroom with shower/wc/bidet, utility room (closed, availability only for the owner), 2 twin bedrooms, 1 bathroom with tub/shower/wc/bidet, large living room with couch and upholstered furniture, SAT-TV access to the terrace with table and chairs, kitchen with stove, oven, fridge, freezer, dishwasher, laundry with washing machine. The furnishings are very nice and comfortable. The apartment has air conditioning, is very bright thanks to the big windows, and has beautiful view over Lucca. Terracotta tiled floors and beamed ceilings.
